

VIRGINIA FRESH MATCH

More than 893,000 Virginians rely on SNAP/EBT benefits to feed their families.

The Virginia Fresh Match (VFM) network helps families afford fresh fruits and vegetables by DOUBLING the value of SNAP at farmers markets and local food retailers. More than 150 locations across the state collaborate to support farmers and make fresh food affordable in their communities.

WHY IT MATTERS

Customers shared that...

VFM is an essential source of produce for Virginia families.

59% couldn't afford to eat balanced meals

97% said VFM helped their household eat more produce

94% used ALL of the VFM match dollars they received

VFM surveys show:

The longer customers use Virginia Fresh Match, the more their food security improves

2024 IMPACTS

CUSTOMER STORIES

"Everyone at the market is so friendly and welcoming, I look forward to going and spending my SNAP there every week."

*SNAP Customer,
Annandale Farmers Market*

"The program has helped our family so much because without it, we would not be able to eat. We are struggling so hard and this feels like a real blessing."

PARTNER IMPACTS

"In just 5 months of participating in VFM, we have seen a 30% increase in our produce sales thanks to a combination of lower prices and community education about the importance of eating nutritious foods."

So Fresh Supermarket, Petersburg, VA

"Our market has seen a big increase in VFM customers this year. It's wonderful to see families trying new produce that they otherwise would not be able to afford, and more customers for our farmers."
